1) How do we prepare ourselves and children to stand tall for Scriptural truth, as we may be labeled as narrow minded bigots, who are out of touch with reality?

A crown of thorns is centered in the upper half of the image, set against a dark, textured background. The thorns are dark and sharp, creating a stark contrast with the lighter text below. The overall mood is somber and reflective.

2) Describe a time when you disagreed with a loved one on an important moral topic.

so how should I respond if someone wants to be recognized, i.e, with pronouns, as the opposite gender?

4) my work has an event celebrating the LGBT community. How should I respond when I am pressured to go?
What should I do if attending becomes mandatory?

5) How do you respond to the statement
that you need to respect my choices?

6) Is the church in America compromised on the topic of wealth? Do we avoid hard biblical truths in the area of money? Doesn't living in a wealthy nation make verses like Matthew 6:19 and 1 Timothy 6:17 even more relevant?

“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth,
where moths and vermin destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moths and vermin do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Matt 6:19-21

“Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment.”

1 Timothy 6:17

A crown of thorns is visible in the background, centered behind the text. The thorns are dark and sharp, creating a silhouette against the dark blue background.
