

The Scarlet Thread

A scarlet thread of redemption is woven throughout Scripture. It traces God’s unfolding plan of love – to redeem fallen mankind. From Genesis to Revelation, this red ribbon represents our need for an innocent blood sacrifice. Ultimately, God sent His Son to die on the cross as the sacrifice for all our sins.

The Scarlet Thread & You:

(Notes from your review of the Scarlet Thread)

Knowledge

Keep my commandments and live; keep my teaching as the apple of your eye; bind them on your fingers; write them on the tablet of your heart. Proverbs 7:2-3

And behold, they cried out, "What have You to do with us, O Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time?" Matthew 8:29

You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe--and shudder! Do you want to be shown, you foolish person, that faith apart from works is useless? James 2:19

Faith

For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterward change your minds and believe him. Matthew 21:32

The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks. Luke 6:45

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Hebrews 11:1

Hope

For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. Galatians 5:5

to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 1 Peter 1:4-5
